

Resolution of the California Student Aid Commission honoring
Caroline Siegel-Singh

Whereas, Ms. Caroline Siegel-Singh was appointed by Governor Gavin Newsom in June 2019. She was a passionate, thoughtful advocate representing the needs and concerns of California college students during her two years as a member of the California Student Aid Commission; and,

Whereas, Ms. Caroline Siegel-Singh has served as a Commissioner, as the Committee Chair of the Student Impact, Outreach and Communications Committee since 2020, and as a member the Data, Research and Strategic Planning Committee. She has also served in numerous leadership roles as a member of the Financial Aid Advisory Board and as a representative in various key meetings; and,

Whereas, Ms. Caroline Siegel-Singh was a student at University of California, San Diego when she began her term on the Commission and graduated during the most challenging time of the pandemic. She continued to show resilience and applied for graduate school, where she is now attending the University of California, Berkeley to further her education; and,

Whereas, Ms. Caroline Siegel-Singh strongly advocated for educational equity, college affordability, and basic needs issues before institutional governing boards and countless conferences and panels. She also served as a member of the Cal Grant Modernization work group; and,

Therefore, be it now

Resolved, this Commission and its staff commend Ms. Caroline Siegel-Singh for her leadership and vision as a member of the California Student Aid Commission, and be it further

Resolved, that the Commission and its staff wish her continued personal and professional success in her future work service and activities.
