Fraudulent('Bot') Applications

- About 14,000 applications since October 1st appear to be related to fraudulent activity (also known as 'Bot' applications')
- These applications often list a California Community College (as college of application), usually show up as 'first-time' applicants, birthdate of age 30+, no reported income and invalid contact information.
- These applications began to appear in the late spring/summer of this year and have continued to appear into the Fall.

FAFSA & CADAA Submission Trend Summary

- Early cycle FAFSA/CADAA applications are down year over year among all undergraduates. Dream Act applications also are down year over year.
- Applications are down across all education segments and student age groups, with the largest year over year decreases at CCC & CSU
