<sup>1</sup> https://oal.ca.gov/publications/notice\_register/#Schedule, OAL publishes the Notice Register every Friday. To be published, a Notice must be received by OAL no later than 10 calendar days before the publication date. Section 5, Title 1, California Code of Regulations describes what an agency must submit with its Notice.

<sup>2</sup> Once submitted, OAL has 30 working days to conduct a review of the rulemaking record to ensure that the agency satisfied the requirements of the APA and OAL's regulations. https://oal.ca.gov/rulemaking\_participation/

<sup>3</sup> Under Government Code 11343.4, regulations become effective on one of four quarterly dates based on when the final regulations are filed with the Secretary of State: January 1, if filed between September 1 and November 30; April 1, if filed between December 1 and February 29; July 1, if filed between March 1 and May 31; and October 1, if filed between June 1 and August 31.

* 15 Day Substantive Changes and Public Comment Period only necessary if changes requested by OAL.
